The five British values that the Government has identified for schools to focus on are: -

- Democracy
- The Rule of Law
- Individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs
- Developing personal and social responsibility
- Respect for British Institutions

There are more details on how our school demonstrates and develops these British Values in our British Values Policy and on our website.

Introduction

Lowton West Primary School is guided by a clear set of objectives and values, one of which is equality. Our mission identifies the importance that we place on valuing individuals and their individuality. This policy is intended to ensure that our school promotes individuality in all our children irrespective of their ethnicity, religion, attainment, age, disability, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or background.

Unlawful discrimination, which results in unfairness in any aspect of school's employment policies and practices, curriculum or service delivery, will not be acceptable under any circumstances.

In accordance with our mission statement, we pledge to respect the equal human rights of our pupils, staff and other members of the school community, and to educate them about equality, diversity and cohesion.

Legislation and Duties

This policy is in accordance with The Equality Act 2010, which replaced all previous legislation in relation to equal opportunities. In line with that legislation, it seeks to ensure that this school provides equal opportunities for all children and adults, giving due regard to groups with 'protected characteristics', in terms of gender, race, disability, sexual orientation, religion/belief, age, gender reassignment, pregnancy/maternity and marriage/civil partnership, in accordance with the Act.

The following table identifies the equality legislation that affects the school.

Equality Ethos Statement

In accordance with our mission statement and ethos, we pledge to respect the human rights of all our pupils and to educate them about equality.

We will also respect the equal rights of staff, parents and other members of the school community.

In particular, we will comply with the relevant legislation and will implement school plans in relation to race equality, disability equality, gender equality and the Special Educational Needs and Disability Code of Practice 2014 in order to develop positive attitudes and a sense of responsibility towards human rights.

School also adheres to the DfE guidance to actively promote fundamental British Values and follow advice “to create and enforce a clear and rigorous expectation on all schools to promote the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.”

Our Equality Policy is intended to help to ensure that this school promotes the individuality of everyone.

- We do not discriminate against anyone, be they staff, pupil or parent, on the grounds of ethnicity, religion, attainment, age, disability, gender, gender identity and reassignment, sexual orientation or background.
- We promote the principle of fairness and justice for all through the education that we provide in our school.
- We seek to ensure that all pupils have equal access to the full range of educational opportunities provided by the school.
- We constantly strive to remove any forms of indirect discrimination that may form barriers to learning for some groups.
- We ensure that all recruitment, employment, promotion and training systems are fair to all, and provide opportunities for everyone.
